

Whether it's clothing, records, furniture or collectibles you are after, you'll find a long list of stores to visit on Sydney Road. They are super easy to find, just work your way down the street or download our app and head to self-guided tours. Why not get your friends together and organise a group trip to see what bargains and treasures you can find. You can make a day of it rummaging and exploring the treasure trove of shops. When you're feeling a little tired just stop at one of the many cafes for a caffeine fix, or a beer garden for something more refreshing on those hotter days. New stock is donated regularly by generous Melbourneans, so that means there's always a wealth of great stuff to find.

Sydney Road Secondhand & Vintage Guide

5 Reasons to Shop Secondhand

- Shopping on a budget
Grab a bargain and find brand names at ridiculously low prices. Many designer items are passed on to secondhand and consignment stores. Now you can have expensive taste while pinching pennies. Nothing beats the thrill of bagging that one of a kind designer piece for under $10
- Help a charity
Not all secondhand stores are connected to charities, but a whole lot of them are! You get to shop and charities get to pass on the benefits. It's win-win.
- Stop landfill & waste
Everything you find in a secondhand store could have easily ended up in land fill or collecting dust in someones home. Buying second hand is a way to practice sustainability while shopping at the same time. It shrinks our fashion footprint and environmental impact by giving items a second chance. It's a war on waste!
- Give items new life
Choose old over new. When we buy or wear an item that has already been produced, we are giving it a new life and rebelling against fast fashion and over consumption. You might have heard the saying "Clothes aren't made how they use to be". Revive the style of yesterday and combine it with the today!
- Unique style
Shopping secondhand and vintage helps you create your own unique personal style that last longer than any latest trends. Create an outfit from one-off pieces or combine with something that is already in your wardrobe.

Don't forget to bring your reusable shopping bag!

Just a short ride away from the city centre is Sydney Road, Brunswick, a well-loved culinary & entertainment haven of Melbourneans. Follow your feet & be spoilt for choice with many pubs, music venues, bars, designer and boutique clothing stores.
